

A growing aerospace company is searching for an experienced furnace operator for 2nd shift with exceptional skills and experience to expand furnace capacity, increase volume and grow business in furnace department.

Position Description:

Skilled vacuum and retort furnace operator. Ideal candidates have a background in aerospace and ability to carry-out engineering functions as/when required.

Required knowledge, skills, and abilities for position:

- Control and monitor heat treat furnaces while following written instructions.
- Prepare parts for processing; load and unload furnaces, fixtures, baskets, etc.
- Ability to troubleshoot unexpected issues and/or notify supervisor.
- Practice and promote safety and good housekeeping.

Education/experience requirements:

- High School degree or equivalent is required
- Minimum of 5-year professional work experience and/or training preferred
- Minimum 1 year of experience operating a vacuum furnace for heat treat preferred
- Knowledge of heat treat processes preferred
- May be required to work overtime or any shift, including weekends
- May need to obtain and maintain forklift operation certification

Physical demands/work environment:

- use hands and/or fingers to handle, reach or feel
- Must be able to work in a standing position for extended periods of time in an industrial environment.
- ability to stand, walk, climb, balance, stoop, kneel, crouch or crawl
- vision abilities required to perform this job include close vision
- ability to lift up to 50 lbs
- reasonable accommodation can be made to enable people with disabilities to perform the described essential functions
- May be exposed to heat, fumes, noise, and humidity, etc.
- Ability to work full-time, 40 hours per week with overtime.

Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.